

Euthanasia - A Biblical View on a Hard Topic (Part #2)

We long for something better as we face the hardships of this fallen world. We desire freedom from pain, escape from suffering. In the last century, euthanasia has promised that release. But is it biblical? What does scripture have to say about end of life decisions?

What is euthanasia really about (besides escape from pain)?

Sphere of _____ - A Review

Intrinsic –

Extrinsic –

The Problem –

The clearest argument for our intrinsic value is the _____.

1) Sphere of _____ - A Theology of Suffering

Considering the testimony of experience...

Rom 8:22

A) Pain Is Not Inherently _____

B) Our Sufferings Are the Result of _____

Gen 3, 6-9; Rom 1, 8:20-21; Heb 12:7

C) Our Good God Is _____ Over Suffering/Pain

Rom 8:28

“we know” –

“all things” –

“work together for good” –
See 2 Cor 11, 12

“for those who love God, who are called according to his purpose” –
See vv. 29-30

D) Pain Can Have a _____ Quality

2 Cor 12; Rom 5:3-5; Jas 1:2-4; Job 2

E) Pain & Suffering Are Not the _____ Thing in Life

2) Sphere of _____ - A Command to Support Each Other

A Change in Life Expectancy –

A Change in Culture –

Galatians 6:2...

We all have _____.

Self-Sufficiency is a _____. (Acts 17:25)

Mutuality is a _____. (1 Cor 12)

Do you have a question about end-of-life decisions & scenarios? Please call, text, email, or talk with Pastor Daniel as we'd like to address those during next week's message as best we can.